

City News In Brief

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Country Visitor.

Mrs. A. A. Vannoy, of Skull Valley and daughter were visitors yesterday with friends, returning home later with holiday goods.

Returns Home.

Mrs. W. R. Ehle, of Jerome Junction, who had been in the city for a few days visiting with relatives, returned home yesterday.

Has the Influenza.

O. S. Wakeling is confined to his home on South Summit Street by a bad attack of the influenza. He is under the care of a trained nurse.

From the Country.

Emmet Newton, farming in Skull Valley, was a visitor yesterday, reporting the slowing down of industry, incidental to a mid-winter situation.

On Business Trip.

E. D. Raley, the Y. M. C. A. secretary at Fort Whipple went to Phoenix yesterday to spend a few days looking after some business matters.

Holiday Shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, of Big Chino Valley, motored to the city yesterday, and return home today after a holiday shopping trip and visiting with friends.

Here From Texas.

Stanley Withrow who for some time past has been stationed at Camp Dick, Texas, arrived in Prescott yesterday for a visit at the home of Harry Dietz at Pine Crest.

From Congress.

C. A. Randall was a visitor during the week from the Congress camp, coming to investigate the influenza situation, and will defer sending his daughter to the public school in the city until early in the year.

Comes to Reside.

Sheriff-elect and Mrs. Warren G. Davis are now making Prescott their home, arriving during the week from Mayer, and are occupying the O. H. Tucker residence on North Mt. Vernon street.

Business Trip.

J. T. Rush, manager of Kirkland hotel, was a brief business visitor yesterday, and stated the outlying mining country was facing an excellent future, many properties being shaped up for action early in the spring.

Lid Goes Off.

County School Superintendent Miller stated yesterday that official orders had been issued from his office for all public schools to reopen on December 30, unless this action would be revoked in the meantime if there was a recrudescence of the flu.

Taking Layoff.

Robert Griffith, county road foreman of the Clarkdale-Cottonwood division, arrived yesterday and will enjoy a vacation during the Christmas holidays, when he returns to complete the work. He reports the flu as abating and industrial conditions are again normal.

Fine Outlook.

John Brady is in the city from his mining camp near Zonia, and states engineers are beginning to arrive to make observations, in which deals are to be closed. The resuming of the above copper, also that of the McMahon brothers, is the beginning of a new era for that field.

Will Recover.

W. W. Ross, who was called to Berkeley, Cal., by the serious illness of his daughter, Miss Esther Ross, who was afflicted with influenza, returned yesterday. He stated that she was progressing toward recovery and in due time will be in normal health. Mrs. Ross remained in the above city to be with her daughter.

Sad Home Coming.

Mrs. Harry B. Ko'l, who has recovered sufficiently to be able to travel, left yesterday for Pasadena, Cal., to attend the funeral of her husband, who death occurred several days ago from influenza. Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, her mother, accompanied her. Mrs. Kohl, also, was quite seriously ill from this affliction.

Holidays at Home.

There are many friends in Prescott of Mrs. George F. Juleff, formerly Miss Alice Campbell, who will be pleased to know that she arrived yesterday with her son, Campbell Juleff, to spend the holiday season at the old home. She is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell, and receives a welcome from many friends.

Military Career Ends.

V. S. Holly, who had been at the University of Arizona as a military student, arrived from Tucson yesterday, having been honorably discharged. He was assigned to the wireless division, with which service he was agreeably impressed. He will locate in Skull Valley, so Cupid states, and the name of the young lady will be announced later.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mohave Visitor.

W. L. Kayser of Hackberry a former resident of this city, was an arrival during the week on a business trip, returning today.

Visiting Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Jones left yesterday for Martinez, near Congress, where they will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fuel.

Holiday Visit.

Miss Mabel Lee, teaching the Canon public school, is in the city en route to the American ranch to spend the holidays at home with relatives.

Visitors From Mine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Murdock, the first-named with the Consolidated at the Blue Bell camp, are in the city for a short visit with friends and to do holiday shopping.

Holiday Trip.

C. E. Batton, manager of the Peck mine, left yesterday for Los Angeles to visit with his wife and remain away during the holiday season. He reports operations in revising that silver as progressing satisfactorily.

Health Restored.

Mrs. Al Everitt, a former resident of this city, now of Wickenburg, was discharged yesterday from Mercy hospital, after being operated upon, and is again in excellent health. She returned home later during the day.

Christmas at Home.

Sanford Peery, a young man of Lordsburg, Cal., who had been looking over this section for a business location, leaves for home today, to spend Christmas, and returns after the first of the year.

Home From Outing.

Mrs. D. W. Russell, wife of the local banker, accompanied by her children, has returned home after an absence of four months at Ocean Park, Cal., and is receiving a welcome from her many friends.

To Sonora.

Abner Thomas and G. T. Sheppard, of Coconino county, are in the city, and leave later for Sonora, on a cattle-buying trip. The first-named is to also visit a brother at Hermosillo, and will return via San Diego on a steamer.

Out of the Army.

Corporal H. R. Taylor has returned to Prescott from Fort Wood, Texas, being mustered out of the army with an honorable discharge, and is receiving a welcome from many friends. He will resume his business as a barber.

Recover From Flu.

That Mr. and Mrs. U. W. Bosley of Skull Valley, victims of influenza, and quite seriously ill at one time, have fully recovered, was the news given out yesterday by their daughter, Mrs. Homer Hixon, who has returned after nursing them.

Comes for Holidays.

First Sergeant Linington D. Crossman, who had been at the officers training school, Atlanta, Georgia, arrived in Prescott yesterday morning to remain for the holidays with his parents and sisters. He is again in civil life, having been mustered out of the army recently.

Sells Fruit Crop.

William Roberts of Fair Oaks has started to deliver to this city his entire apple crop of about 3,000 boxes, sold to local dealers. He states this season has been the best ever known, and if weather conditions next year are as favorable, he will have an output of nearly double that of this year.

Flu In Cuba.

J. T. Judson, who left this section about one year ago to work for the government at the American naval station of Guantanamo, Cuba, writes that influenza has nearly depopulated some of the inland provinces, the natives being the afflicted ones. No remedies are procurable and sanitary rules are not observed, these being the reasons for the heavy death rate.

From Saturday's Daily

Comes to Visit.

Mrs. J. A. Conway, of Clarkdale, is in the city for a short visit with friends.

Comes to Visit.

Mrs. E. E. Axford, of Mayer, is in the city for a brief visit with friends and on a holiday shopping trip.

Here From Kingman.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Walker of Kingman are here for a visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denny of Miller Valley.

Resting Up.

Dan Dwyer of Jerome and C. C. Reed of Mayer both well-known miners, are in the city on a vacation and will spend Christmas with friends.

Holiday Shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones of Humboldt motored to the city yesterday on a holiday shopping trip and to visit with friends, returning home today.

Has the Flu.

O. S. Wakeling, well known resident of this city, has fallen a victim of influenza, and yesterday he was reported to be quite ill at his home in West Prescott.

Concludes Visiting.

Mrs. Henry Brinkmeyer has returned to Prescott after an enjoyable visit for the past two months with her parents at the old home in Minnesota, and is welcomed back by her many friends.

Back From South.

Steve Mensinger, a former resident of this county, and a mine carter by vocation, arrived yesterday from the Silver Bell camp in Pima county, to remain until after the holidays visiting with friends.

Well Again.

There are many in this county who will be interested to learn that Mrs. E. M. Noyes, an estimable known pioneer resident of the '60 era, has recovered from influenza, after having been seriously ill for several days.

Officials Qualify.

Oaths and bonds of the following officers-elect in this county were filed for record yesterday and they are now qualified to act: Geo. W. Hance, Justice of the Peace, Camp Verde precinct, (re-elected); Ben Johnson, Constable of Humboldt and Wm. A. Allen, Constable of Clarkdale.

On the Force.

John H. Drew has been appointed night officer of this city, succeeding Thomas McMahon, who resigned after receiving the nomination for chief of police. He is beginning his new official career under favorable auspices and requires no training, having had a long acquaintance with the city.

To Resume Mining.

W. M. Blount was in the city yesterday from his camp on Lynx Creek, and is shaping up to resume development about the first of the year, when he will operate quite extensively. He has abandoned the contract in sinking the Bonnie shaft, but the work continues, a depth of 303 feet of the 500 feet planned has been reached to date.

Midgley in Town.

Supervisor-elect Major W. W. Midgley was an arrival yesterday from Clarkdale, and comes to the county-seat to familiarize himself with official duties of the future. With him was R. E. Donovan, a young man who is seeking appointment as clerk of the board. Paul Smyley, a business man of Clarkdale, also was of the party.

Printer Warrior.

C. S. Neese, better known in Prescott as "Knockie," was a brief visitor yesterday while returning to Phoenix from Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, where he was stationed with the 138th Engineers. He will resume his vocation as a linotype operator at the capital, and received a welcome from many in this city. He stated he desired to go to the trenches, but now it is back to fingering the keys instead of a Springfield.

Student Soldiers Back.

Walter Murphy, son of Mrs. Julia Murphy, returned home Thursday night from the University of Arizona, where he had been in the student military corps training, and is now discharged from the service. Two other youths of this city, "Jimmy" Smith son of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Smith, and Joe E. Andres, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Andres, arrived yesterday afternoon from Los Angeles, and return to civil life after a course of military training at the University of Southern California. All are honorably discharged.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Mining Business.

Marshall Stoddard, one of the best known mining men of the Mayer country, was in the city yesterday on business.

Holiday Shopping.

Mrs. James Muse, wife of a Kirkland Valley rangeman, was in the city yesterday visiting with friends and to do holiday shopping.

Week-End Visitors.

Mrs. W. R. Ehle and sister, Mrs. B. J. McNicholl, of Jerome Junction visited in the city yesterday with friends, returning home in auto last night.

Rural Visitor.

P. W. Farrell, farming in Williamson valley, was in the city yesterday, reporting a successful season, and another year ahead with a good outlook.

Back From Oatman.

Charles Edward Major, the geologist and mining engineer, has returned to Prescott after having spent the past three weeks at Oatman and Chloride in the examination of several mining properties for a large eastern syndicate.

Holiday Trip.

Attorney T. G. Norris left yesterday for Los Angeles, to meet clients and also enjoy Christmas with friends.

Here From Holbrook.

Walter Hanson and E. I. Hastings of Holbrook are in Prescott for a stay of a few days to look after some business matters.

Flu Pades Away.

J. A. Stapp was a visitor yesterday from Skull Valley, reporting that even on the ranch and range and the flu had vanished as the last topic of discussion.

Business Trip.

Fred O. Crain, editor of the Bulletin of Oil and Mines, a local magazine devoted to Arizona industrial along the lines mentioned, is in Jerome this week looking after the interests of his publication.

Back to Dry Land.

Ernest Martinez, who had been filling an engagement in the navy at Mare Island, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Martinez, of this city, has returned home, having been honorably discharged from the service.

Wet Country.

W. J. DeArmond, farming in Skull Valley was in the city yesterday and reported a heavy snow on falling on Friday night which will be of great benefit in the future to his business as well as to all rangemen.

A Sturdy Farmer.

R. S. Cookingham, who has abandoned the tripod for the plow, was a visitor yesterday from his holding near Jerome Junction. He states he may resume his civil engineering duties later, and says the farming business has made him quite wealthy during the past season.

Winter on Desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Charleton are in the city for a few days, coming from the Jerome section, and are en route to a mining camp near Vicksburg, on the desert, to remain for the winter. A brother of Mrs. Charleton has started to operate in the above field.

Burning Brick.

T. E. Fitzsimmons has arrived from Phoenix, and will resume brick making at his yard in Miller Valley, firing up kilns to a capacity of over 200,000. The 1918 supply of half a million was consumed in this city last summer, and to meet new demands in building is the cause of his return in mid-winter.

Back to the Range.

"Shorty" King arrived yesterday from Camp Lewis, Washington, and is getting ready to throw off the khaki to don the schaperojos, for work on the range. He has an honorable discharge from the army and will get in the saddle again to round up the bovines. He is disappointed that he couldn't go over.

Fatal Flu.

A postal card from Denver announces the death of Gerald S. Stoneman, and publicity is desired in this section, the deceased having been formerly employed at the Vulture, and in the field near Constellation. He was aged 27 years, a native of Omaha, and influenza was the cause of death.

Sudden Illness.

Mrs. Roy Chambers, wife of Lieut. Chambers, with an engineering corps at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, was taken ill with influenza unexpectedly a few days ago, and is now at Mercy hospital under treatment. Her condition yesterday was reported as satisfactory, the attack being of a mild form.

Active Silver Camp.

W. W. Elliott, construction engineer of the Peck Mining Co., is in the city for a brief visit, and states the new ball mill is being assembled in the old building where the stamp plant was first erected many years ago. Other apparatus is also being installed and the historic silver bonanza will soon be in action with a modern equipment.

Come by Train.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Barrington of Oatman arrived yesterday by train, leaving their car on the road out of Ash Fork, on account of bad roads and a breakdown. The first-named is a mining man representing a Goldfield, Nevada, syndicate, and is to investigate a property out of Mayer. His wife is to spend Christmas with relatives at Jerome.

In Civil Life Again.

Earl Simmons, who, on being honorably discharged from the army last week at Fort Benjamin Harrison, was highly commended by his commanding officer, returned to Prescott a few days ago, and is going to resume his vocation as a millman in a mining camp. He is regarded as capable in this line of work, and is an expert in vamping treatment particularly.

Option Deal.

F. E. Setters, who had been developing a prospect in Black Canyon district, was a visitor yesterday, stating that he had closed an option deal with Menz & Welch, of El Paso, the deal being for about $1,500 of which a first payment of $350 had been made. Setters has other holdings nearby and begins work in a short time. The new operators were discharged from the army on the same day at Camp Cody, N. M.

Coming Back.

Steven Dunn, one of the many Canadians residing in this county who volunteered when war was declared over four years ago, was among the wounded returned to Toronto, and has recovered. He writes that he will return to some section in this county immediately after the first of the year to re-occupy, locating probably at Constellation where the winter weather is mild. Four other Canadians will accompany him, all having been wounded in action.

Pleased Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Bardwell, who arrived Friday evening from Superior come to Prescott to spend their first vacation in three years amidst scenes of long ago, in the snow. Also they desire to celebrate Christmas in the good old way, and believe that "the beautiful" will fill the bill. They leave today for the Jerome country, to return Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Bardwell is accountant of a copper company in the Superior field, and both visitors are very much pleased over coming here.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Visiting Lawyer.

C. H. Rutherford, the Jerome attorney, was in the city yesterday, having litigation in the superior court.

Come to Reside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Graves have removed from the Prescott Farms Co. tract to this city, where they will reside hereafter, arriving yesterday.

Rural Visitor.

Charles Edwards, member of the Prescott Farms Co. colony, was in the city yesterday on a business trip, reporting the country as having prospered last season.

Sunday Visitor.

B. H. Vaughn yardmaster at Phoenix of the S. F. P. & F., visited Sunday in this city with his sister, Mrs. Lulu McIntosh, deputy county recorder.

Holidays at Tucson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zucca, well known in this city, left Sunday for Tucson, to spend the holidays with relatives and friends, returning after New Year's.

Ill With Flu.

Clarence Evans, a young man recently of Carlsbad, N. M., was seized suddenly with influenza while at Fort Whipple on Saturday, and is now under treatment at Mercy hospital.

Holiday Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendey are entertaining their daughter, Miss Lavina Hendey, of Sacramento, Cal., and Miss Emma Wilson, of Chico, Cal., a guest of the latter who arrived Sunday to spend Christmas.

Home for Holidays.

Miss Mary Cronwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cronwell has returned from Stanford University to remain for the holidays, meeting with a welcome from her many friends.

On a Furlough.

Harry Bruggenman, who has reached the rank of chief gunner's mate in the navy, arrived yesterday from San Diego on a furlough to visit with relatives and friends. He has developed into a real big-gun fighter and is welcomed home by many.

Home for Holidays.

Miss Teel Acker, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. J. S. Acker, returned Sunday from the University of Redlands, Cal., to be at home during the holiday season with relatives and friends, and is receiving a welcome from many.

Mining Man Returns.

G. Kirkland, a principal of the recently reorganized Peck Mining Co., which is in action at the famed early-day silver camp in the Bradshaws, returned Sunday from Chicago, to remain indefinitely on an inspection.

Comes to Visit.

State Bank Examiner F. E. Ross is in the city from Phoenix to remain during Christmas visiting with his wife and family. The visitor also fell in the flu line but escaped after a short illness recovering a short time ago.

Christmas Vacation.

Ralph Hooker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hooker, is home for the rest of the week to spend Christmas with his parents and young friends, returning to Harvard Military College, Los Angeles, next Saturday, where is a student.

Wins Decoration.

Miss Mary Dillingham of the high school faculty has just received news that her brother, Charles Lee Dillingham, who was among those rescued on the troop-ship, Tuscania, in February, has been decorated with the French Legion of Honor, for services as a balloon observer.

Here From Humboldt.

Mrs. Amos D. Adams, Jr., is in Prescott from her home in Humboldt and is the guest of H. F. Adams while awaiting the arrival of her sister, Mrs. Balderson who is expected here from Montana soon. The latter recently lost her husband and expects to remain in Arizona indefinitely.

Walker Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pfaff, recently of Indiana, are in the city from Walker, and have decided to make this section their home in the future. Mr. Pfaff has been discharged from the army and during his military service, his wife had been visiting at Walker, with an aunt, Mrs. J. C. Johnson.

Ready to Go In.

Sheriff-elect Warren G. Davis has financially qualified to take his office on January 1, filing for record yesterday his oath and bond, which was approved by Chairman Stephens of the board of supervisors. The bond is for the sum of $10,000, which security was provided by the New York Surety Co.

Critically Ill.

It will be learned with sorrow throughout this county that Theodore DeMorbant, proprietor of the Golden Eagle hotel, this city, is critically ill from cancer of the throat, and his recovery is hopeless. He is well and favorably known and for over seventeen years has been a resident of Prescott.

Back from the Sea.

Fred McKinley, who has reached the rank of quartermaster in the navy, arrived yesterday from San Francisco, and will spend Christmas at home on land with his mother and friends. He has a furlough of ten days, and this hunky youth is meeting with cordial welcome from many acquaintances.

Busy Home.

It will be learned with regret in this community that Mrs. J. C. Bradbury is ill with pneumonia, but her condition yesterday was reported as satisfactory. Her husband is now nursing her, after he had been cared for by his wife for over two months after meeting with a serious auto mishap, from which he is slowly regaining normal health.

An Exceptional Record.

W. D. Clark, honorably discharged from the artillery service at Fort Crockett, Texas, after a short visit at home with his wife and others, left yesterday for Superior with Mrs. Clark to remain for the winter. His military career is exceptional. First he was drafted, and discharged on technical grounds, which he disapproved. A short time afterward he went to another recruiting station and volunteered when he was accepted and assigned to the above arm.

Back to the Barracks.

"The dove of peace flew over the barracks the day peace was declared and my command barely missed getting over there," he said with dejected accent, in mentioning the end of his brief military experience.

DONNOVAN HERE TO GET LINE ON NEW JOB.